CHANGES TO THE ANNOUNCEMENTS

In order to save paper we are planning to trial a new way of communicating church announcements. From Sunday, 24th March, when you arrive at church you will only be given an Order of Service as announcements will be displayed on the screens before and after every service. They will also be available on the website, Facebook page or, you can receive them via email by signing up at the I-Desk. Some printed copies will be available at the I-Desk for anyone who cannot receive them any other format. We would really like to encourage everyone to embrace this trial period and, after a few weeks, we will welcome all feedback.

COMMUNICATION TEAM

With the opening of our new halls, we wish to update our materials. To do this we need help with writing, designing, updating our website, printing booklets, etc. If you could help, please contact Sharon McIntyre or office.fisherwick@gmail.com.
